

A Critical Conversation on Carbon Trading presented by the Climate Justice Chicago Coalition

by CAN TV
Tuesday, 04 March 2008

Â

Â

Larry Lohman discusses how carbon trading creates transferable rights to dump carbon, slows the social and technological change, promotes socially and ecologically destructive practices and is ineffective and unjust.

The event was held on March 4, 2008

This program was produced by Chicago Access Network Television(CAN TV).

www.climatejusticechicago.org