New report examines corporate influence on design of EU-ETS

Monday, 02 February 2009

A new report from Corporate Europe Observatory and PLATFORM reveals how oil giant BP's lobbying at the heart of the EU has played a key role in influencing Europe's energy policy, including the controversial EU Emissions Trading Scheme.

The report can be downloaded from:

http://www.corporateeurope.org/extractinginfluence.html