

UK Parliamentary Enquiry into The Voluntary Carbon Offsets Market

by
Friday, 02 February 2007

The UK Parliamentary Environmental Audit Committee is currently holding an enquiry into the voluntary carbon offsets market. Critical evidence of the inherent problems in carbon offsets has been submitted by Carbon Trade Watch, the Cornerhouse, FERN, the World Development Movement and other organisations.

To the download the Carbon Trade Watch Submission, click here.

To the download the Cornerhouse Submission, click here.

To the download the World Development Movement Submission, click here.